Los Angeles Sheriff's Department is requesting a no cost emergency loan for Flock Advanced License Plate Readers (ALPR). These ALPR cameras will be used to aid law enforcement in securing and patrolling the areas recently devastated by the Los Angeles County Wildfires. Flock ALPR cameras can immediately flag hot listed vehicles and alert law enforcement in tracking down looting and burglary suspects. Flock has offered fifty (50) ALPR cameras, implementation and surveillance platform for 6 months. This loan agreement has been accepted and prioritized by the Board of Supervisors, Office of the Sheriff, and Department of Public Works which will be offering their infrastructures to mount the cameras on.
